

LAUREL-LONDON OPTIMIST FOUNDATION

POLICY FOR COACH AND REFEREE INTEGRITY

The Laurel-London Optimist Foundation values its reputation for integrity and the adherence to the highest ethical standards by its members. In this regard, we reemphasize our policy concerning coach and referee positions.

Listed below are some Practices which would constitute lack of integrity by Optimist standards

- ✓ Any use of alcohol or drugs during practices or games
- ✓ Attending any practice or game under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- ✓ Use of profanity during practices or games
- ✓ The mistreatment of a player by either physical or verbal abuse
- ✓ Intentionally putting a child in a situation so as to cause harm either physical or mental
- ✓ Harassment or abuse of any official, scorekeeper, or timekeeper will not be tolerated during or after a game.
- ✓ any other conduct deemed unethical by the sports committee.

As a coach or referee in the Laurel-London Optimist Club sponsored league I understand and agree with the above. I further agree to abide by the for mentioned policies and that any deviation from these policies can result in my being removed from my coach or referee position if such action is so determined by the governing committee.
